With only a couple of sailing events remaining this fall, it is extremely rewarding to realize how enthusiastically our 2004 schedule was greeted by all those who attended our races, rendezvous, cruises, and parties. Attendance has been up this year at almost everything. Our various committees contribute a tremendous amount of energy and effort when planning and managing each and every event. I would like to thank everyone who worked so hard to accomplish our goals as well as everyone who supported our club by attending and supporting the numerous events.

A spectacular example of what I am referring to is the annual Boat Yard Party recently held at Steve Brice's Yacht Service Ltd. Steve donates the use of his facility which serves as the perfect setting for this fall event, and the Hospitality Committee members make sure we all have a great time. A special thanks to Steve, the Hospitality Committee and everyone who entered the Chili Cook-Off contest. It was a perfect day.

To close out the 2004 sailing schedule, the Turkey Race will be held off Babylon on Saturday, November 27th. This race is followed by a fun filled party with spirited race awards, so bring out your boat or volunteer to crew. Everyone is invited. Watch for more information from Regatta Captain, Jack Morgan.

A couple of weeks after that, we will be hosting the SBCC Holiday Party at the newly renovated Timber Point Country Club in Great River. This upscale event will be a fitting tribute to a great year for our club and the best way to share in the camaraderie of our members. Check the Hospitality article on page 4 of the Masthead, watch your mail for the invitation, and join in the celebration. There is no party in January this year so try to join us in December. We look forward to seeing you.

From the Regatta Captain

Jack Morgan

The sailing season may be winding down, but it seems the party season is winding up. That's what's great about this club. We can have fun on the water or off the water. Sometimes we do both. This was the case on Thursday, October 7, the last twilight race of the season. After drifting around the racecourse for what seemed like hours, skippers and crews gathered at Mary Carroll's in Babylon for food, drinks, and a fun trophy presentation. Thanks to Conor Hartnett, co-skipper of The Nordic Star for having us at his fine establishment.

Recently the SBCC held its annual skippers meeting. We had over 20 enthusiastic people in attendance and some of the topics covered were scheduling, handicap, scoring, safety, and education. I am very pleased with the overall mood of this meeting. There was nothing but positive input and even sensitive issues were discussed with constructive and sometimes humorous exchanges. I am looking forward to starting on next year's program.

On Saturday, November 27 the annual Turkey Race will conclude the racing season for 2004. First gun will be at 1100. At the time of this writing I am still looking for a race committee boat. If you or someone you know, would like to help out, please get in touch with me.

The last item for this issue is photographs. I have noticed a recent increase in on the water photography. This is a good thing. It's very difficult to get good pictures of sailboats in action but Harry Manko and Mike Duffy have been getting some incredible shots. If you have good pictures of member boats in action, please get them to Bob Bennett at benro@opotonline.net or 34 River Road, Sayville, NY 11782 so he can find room to put them in the yearbook.

If you have any questions or comments regarding our racing program, please feel free to contact me.

See you on the starting line.

SPECIAL THANKS

Now that the rendezvous activity has ended for the year I would like to thank all those who hosted a rendezvous. Attendance this year has been terrific and much of that is due to the efforts of our rendezvous hosts. Thank you. If you are interested in hosting a rendezvous next year, please let me know.

HEADING SOUTH

Kariana left Sayville on September 29th heading for Florida. Tom Gotard and Don Metznik were crew for the first stretch to the Chesapeake. Our initial runs were to East Rockaway, Barnegat, and Cape May. Then we had a long run up the Delaware Bay, through the C&D Canal, stopping at the Bohemia River for a total of 81.8 nautical miles. Next stop was Annapolis where the crew took a lay day and then Don headed home via the train.

Tom and I continued down the Chesapeake, making stops at Solomons, Mill Creek, Deltaville, and Hampton. Tom's aviation background made our visit to Hampton's Air and Space Museum really enjoyable as he described his first hand experience with many of the aircraft exhibited.

Adrian and Joyce Gotard met us in Great Bridge, Virginia. Bob and Carol Sheppard arrived the same day to reboard Arcadia. Bob had a crew assist him in a direct run from Long Island to Norfolk, where he left Arcadia at a marina in Great Bridge. My parents live in the area, so we all went to their house for dinner.

The Gotards returned to Long Island and on October 13th Kariana and Arcadia left Great Bridge. We have been traveling together and today October 24th we are in Charleston, South Carolina. Other SBCC boats traveling south are WINDQUEST (Bob Van Tassel), and Highborne Lady (Bill and Barbara Madsen). For the Madsen's this is their 20 something trip south. (Kariana's second)

We had a few nice sails in the ocean and the Chesapeake, but most of the trip south, especially the ICW, is a motoring journey. However, the ability to travel our magnificent coastline and visit its charming towns and cities is a wonderful experience.

Dennis

Editor's Note: Received the following from Adrian in an email dated October 30, "Kariana is making great progress. Weather has been good to allow steady advancement. Today 80 degrees. We are now at Cumberland Island, GA. A very pretty and unique island of natural beauty. Tomorrow will cross the FL state line and slow the pace to Melbourne."

2004 FALL BOATYARD PARTY WRAP UP FROM THE HOSPITALITY CHAIRS

2004 Fall Boatyard Party Tasted Great!

The Fall Boatyard Party was a great success and was enjoyed by more than 115 adults and 10 children. This year, the party featured a Chili Tasting Competition won by none other than Jack Nielsen. Jack took home a $25 gift certificate to the SBCC Store for his awesome chili. Hopefully Jack will share his recipe with us in the next Masthead.

Although Jack claims to have won fair and square, it was a close race with Lauren Peters, guest of Parker and Debbie Revella, close behind him. Lauren's award winning chili lost to Jack by only a few votes.

Thanks for participating Jack and Lauren and congratulations!

We'd also like to thank the rest of our fine chili chefs, including:

- Sandralee Capitain
- Kathy Davis
- Jennifer Einsetler
- Mike Einsetler
- Dennis Marzocco
- Gail Paloscio
- Jim Reichel
- Barbara Schermerhorn
- Donald Watson

Chili Champ Jack Nielsen

The Boatyard Party also boasted a Salty Sam where members were able to admire each other's wares. Many items changed hands and we thank all those that participated.

Lastly, we'd like to, once again, thank the Hospitality Committee volunteers. As always, the success of these events is due to their hard work and cooperation. A special Boatyard Party thanks to Kathleen Farrell, Jack Morgan, Fred and Joan Cornman, Ed Hopkins, Jack and Barbara Nielsen, Toni and Andrea Sicignano, Bill and Colleen Harbert, Mike and Jennifer Einsetler, Paul Rendich, Kevin Padden, Barbara Schermerhorn, and John and Kathy Davis.
