“crazy” hats.

Twenty-two boats attended the "Crazy Hat Party" hosted by Silver Cloud on August 28th at Great River. We couldn't have asked for more beautiful weather, as SBCC members sipped their favorite libations and showed off their most unique head gear. Although competition was tough it was even tougher for the judges to decide who would win the coveted prizes.

The prize for "Most Fun and Unusual" was a toss up between Jack and Barbara Levitsky (Lady Barbara). So to keep peace within the family it went to Barbara. Prize for "Most Creative" went to DJ (Tanzanite) for her SBCC adorned creation. Prize for "Our Favorite" went to Bob Bennet (Habanaro) who wore different hats from his collection throughout the day and whose enthusiasm was unbeatable.

Now don't feel bad if you didn't win this year. We can't promise you beautiful weather again, but we can promise you a chance to win at next year's party, so start working on your hat!

CONGRATULATIONS!!

To the 2010 Foulke Trophy Winners

Kevin Padden in Rettsie and John Davis in Dragon Fly

The Foulke Trophy was established in 1854 in honor of J. Brion Foulke Jr., for the best corrected time in a race from Babylon to Bellport and return, finishing after dark. This is a second time win for John Davis & Dragon Fly.

Week in the Bay, Don't Stop the Music Cruise If This is Sunday it Might be Bellport OR How We Spent Our Summer Vacation.

Mike Duffy SV Loon
Frank Peter SV Vixen

Being members of the South Bay Cruising Club gave us the opportunity to sail on the Bay for a week so we went on the SBCC One Week Cruise.

After some initial reservations about whether the conditions would be good for anchoring in Bellport, NOAA revised the forecast, and we decided to sail from Great River to Bellport on Sunday, a good sail with clear weather and moderate winds on the beam.

After two days exploring Bellport and its excellent restaurants, it was time to move on, as we had a barbeque to attend in Atlantique. The winds were light on the nose and we could faintly smell the Eilbeck's burgers, so we hauled anchors around 0600 and motored to Atlantique docks, where we checked in for a couple of days.

Many of the thirty five SBCC Members who docked at Atlantique received a big discount as Nancy Sherman had arranged the Islip resident rate for all members. Nancy, who is an Islip resident, received no benefit from this, but like all of us she enjoys helping others.

The Barbeque hosted by the Eilbecks as always was great, and to provide shade, Fred Golder erected a tent he had brought along. A tent is rarely included in lists of recommended cruising gear but it sure came in handy. Chefs Matt DeMarco and Don Metzник were both so popular it was hard to tell which was the favored end of the line.

Beach games Wednesday morning by Della Bucher featured two new events, including disrobics, and all protests were disallowed. Great fun but a lot of sun, so the ocean was great for cooling off.

The second night in Atlantique featured a 'Pot Luck Supper' suggested by the Junior Cruise Captain who is not much of a hand in the galley, but was in need of a home-cooked meal. The food was great and the after dinner show was provided by the newly- formed SBCC Glee Club, under the direction of Chanteyman Roger Daisley. The women of the SBCC displayed so much talent that no one noticed Mike forgot the marshmallows.

On Thursday the show moved on to two locations with one group going to Oak Island Lead, where transportation to dinner at Captree Cove was provided by Jack and Barbara Levitsky aboard Lady Barbara III. There were also some fans who traveled to Captree by car for the entertainment. Another group sailed directly to Coast Guard Cove for a cocktail hour aboard Jayne Heir hosted by Jack and Jayne Tinelli. Hard to say which anchorage was more beautiful.

One Week Bay Cruise cont'd from p. 3

By Friday almost all boats were in Coast Guard Cove for a beautiful day spent visiting with friends by dinghy. The One Week Cruise Wrap Party was hosted by SBCC Yearbook cover models, Vixen and Counterpoint, and at the conclusion the Glee Club gave an outstanding performance.

On Saturday most boats moved on to Hemlock Cove, for the 'Pirates of the Caribbean' Rendezvous hosted by Charlie Margeson aboard Shadow, followed by the SBCC Champagne Breakfast aboard Fun Sway Sunday morning.

Forty SBCC boats spent at least one night on the cruise and three day-sailed in to join. We had excellent weather, great food and outstanding entertainment. Best of all we spent a week with ninety old friends and a half dozen new ones. Don't stop the music. Let's make it a hundred next year.

SBCC Now on Facebook

I received the following for the Rigging Locker, but I think it lends itself better to announce SBCC's new Facebook Group set up for members only - members should have received their invitation to join the group via email. If you have not received an invitation and want to participate, please contact Dick LaBella at labellaR@verizon.net

My wife and I are new members this year. We are looking at getting another anchor for our boat, a 33' Beneteau 12000lbs dwt, and was wondering if anybody has used or heard anything about the Manson Supreme or Rocna anchors? I was debating whether getting a Bruce type, or try one of these new designs. I have read other reviews but was wondering if anybody has first hand experience or information. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks

Kevin and Kristine Duschenchuk
